Distance:	18ml.
Start Time:	9:45

I belong to the Norfolk and Suffolk long distance walking group and one of our group members decided to walk your trail. 16 members turned up for the walk on the day, of which I was one. We walked the route the wrong way, ie turned left from Haveringland Church instead of as advertised right.

We followed the trail as far as the booklet said, apart from at Great Witchingham Church, where the leader was worried about excess mud on the planned route to Reepham Church. Instead we turned left and walked along Marriots Way to Whitwell Station and from there along the back route to Reepham Church. This put an extra 2 plus miles onto the walk.

We stopped at Great Witchingham Church for a 20 minute coffee break and then for a 30 minute lunch break at Salle Church.

We looked inside all churches, apart from Haveringland Church, which was locked. We completed the walk in a few minutes under 7.5 hours. My Garmin on my wrist said I had walked 19.5 miles. I had thought before doing the walk and knowing the area very well as a local, that the advertised 15 miles is a bit conservative. I would suggest it is nearer to 17 plus miles in total.
